ITEMS LEFT AT THE PICNIC

Everett has some items left at the picnic. There is a small stainless bowl used for the M&M's except the afore mentioned M&M's are gone, and 2 spoons and a knife (found together in a plastic bag, AND another spoon left on another table. Everett will take these items to the meeting.

OREGON RENDEZVOUS

It's almost here! The Rendezvous is September 16 to 19.

For members who are new to the club or have never attended the Rendezvous, you will find the atmosphere electrifying! There are so many things to carve (and burn) and instructors who are so delighted to share their skills, you will find the most difficult part is choosing what class to take.

If you decide to attend at the last minute, don't hesitate in showing up. There are a few instructors who have "open" tables and will be happy to have you sit in and do the projects they have. Not only will you find excellent projects, there are also top-notch vendors selling tools, books, advice, wood and equipment. If nothing else, come on in and take a look at the new things being offered.

If you did not preregister (ended on the 8th), be sure to bring food with you. The breakfast, lunch and dinners are prepared based on the number of people who prepaid for them, so there are no extras to be sold. However, there are coffee and snacks set out every day. If you wish to bring in snacks, they will be happily accepted and eaten!

2010 OREGON STATE FAIR REPORT – by Lou Wakefield, Sr

I would like to start this report by giving a "BIG THANK YOU" to all our club members who took the time and made the effort to enter their wood and stone carvings in the State Fair this year. A "BIG THANK YOU" to Dennis Mihm for volunteering to be a judge, and to Dale Crawford for bringing three of his eagle head carvings for display. Thanks to Ken Lake and Rick Harris for helping to arrange the carvings in the cases. I also wish to say thanks again to Dave Strand for donating $200 for wood carving prize money.

Here is a short history of recent wood carvers' participation in the Oregon State Fair. In 2008, we had 8 carvings entered. In 2009, we had 22 carvings entered. This year we had 42 entries. Each year we have more of our carvers involved with the State Fair. I think we did well this year and with your help will do better in the future. The awards listed below do not show all the special ribbons awards to our carvers only the major awards.
